FlightPlan™ is a comprehensive best practice IT review service.

FlightPlan
Review • Reimagine • Remap

Why do you need it?

As a business leader the velocity of today's technological change can be both exciting and perplexing. Businesses need to know how to navigate technology for their best advantage, from experts at the leading edge.

What will it give you?

FlightPlan will provide the Helicopter view of your business from an IT perspective and help you reimagine and remap what you should be doing with IT to propel your business forward.

How in depth is it?

FlightPlan is scalable depending on your needs. Choose from a simple review or the starting point for a strategic IT plan (a comprehensive 20 page report).

Does it include pricing?

FlightPlan can include pricing indications so you know the cost implications of the remap.

FlightPlan is powered by

 KINETICS GROUP

*Available to the first ten people who book FlightPlan for their organisation. Two per organisation. RRP $100. Auckland only.

Where could your IT take you next?

In an age of digital transformation FlightPlan helps businesses answer critical questions:

- Where are we now?
- Where do we want to go?
- How do we use IT to take us there?

When you book a FlightPlan workshop, a Kinetics Senior Engineer will work with your management team to:

REVIEW

Review your business goals.

In accordance with your business goals we review, benchmark and measure critical factors such as:

- Information Protection
- Cybersecurity protection
- Disaster Recovery
- IT Governance
- Staff Capability
- Digital Transformation

REIMAGINE

Reimagine what is possible.

Discover how to leverage the best of digital transformation strategies and technologies to propel your business forward, engage your staff and strengthen your security posture.

REMAP

Remap your IT path to success.

We don't just review what you have got. We remap what you could be doing with IT to improve your business and then we implement it.

Your business' FlightPlan will be revisited annually and evolved as necessary to help you navigate the changes in technology.

ABOUT KINETICS

With over 200 clients and 20 years under our belt, we know what works in theory and what works in practice. Our industry-leading awards and certifications prove we are up to date with the latest innovations.

We are truly independent. We do not sell hardware or software. Nor do we just recommend solutions. We fully understand the technologies involved and are practiced at implementing them in partnership with client's who are open to understanding the pathway to greater business value through IT.
